Laughing
Matters.
It Really
Does.

Tim Cavanagh is a nationally touring comedian who has entertained a wide variety of audiences for over 25 years. In nightclub, college, radio and corporate settings, Tim's clean and upbeat comedy has made him a favorite. Tim brings to the corporate market a fresh new style which incorporates a blend of customized material, funny songs and jokes, fun prizes and audience-involving energy--perfect for any business gathering. Tim does his homework. He learns as much as he can about the nature of the group prior to his performance, and then writes comedy material especially for them. Sometimes, he is introduced as a "serious" speaker, like an expert in a particular field or an executive within the company's hierarchy. Other times, he is simply introduced as a comedian. In any case, the result is a hands-on, custom-made, unforgettably fun experience.

Tim Cavanagh is a Professional Member of the National Speakers Association
