

Steve Corbitt

"Everybody's Favorite Uncle"

Steve Corbitt's warm, friendly style has made him a hit all over the world. He mystifies, makes you laugh and touches your heart. He takes you on a wonderful roller-coaster ride of fun and enchantment.

When it is over, you feel like you have shared a special time with a dear and funny friend.

With his special blend of comedy, magic and audience participation, Steve creates a unique, fun-filled show tailored for every need. It can be laugh-filled, close-up magic for smaller groups or a hysterical, stand-up comedy magic presentation for the large audience. He provides enchanting interactive entertainment that is ideal for any event and any group.

Steve has entertained such luminaries as President Gerald Ford, astronaut Buzz Aldrin, baseball great Stan Musial and Colorado Governor Roy Romer. He was a hit in Japan, Okinawa and Korea, where he headlined a tour of Air Force bases for our overseas troops.

Always appropriate and considerate, Steve develops tremendous rapport with his audience that is magnified by inviting people from the audience to help with the show. He transforms your people into guest stars. This creates a special experience that will be treasured, remembered and talked about by all.
