To Whom It May Concern:

I have been a member of the NAIFEDA group for many years with service as a board member, vice-president and president. Our organization has two annual meetings and we invite vendors to attend and give presentations to our members. I have seen many presentations and heard many presenters throughout the years and one that stands out is Andy Greenberg.

Andy has given several informative and entertaining presentations on behalf of the Nashua Label Company. Because of his stellar reputation NAIFEDA invited Andy to speak to our members about motivation. He captivated the audience with his interpretation of "Motivating Your Mind For Better Business." There was much discussion afterward and several members commented on how impressed they were with Andy's presentation.

Andy Greenberg has demonstrated several outstanding qualities during his association with NAIFEDA. He is personable, energetic, enthusiastic and knowledgeable about his topics. I feel that Andy is a gifted public speaker and would highly recommend him for any position in the field of motivational speech and sales.

Sincerely,

Norman Wright

The Pennie Z. Davis Child Development Center has had the pleasure of hearing Andy Greenberg speak on a number of occasions. Each time, Andy brings with him enthusiasm and excitement. His speaking style is fresh, informative and creative.

In dealing with Andy, I found him to be very flexible. He is a true professional in all aspects. Once we had our topic, Andy sat down and went over it to make sure he understood what we wanted before he began to prepare. After he had his thoughts on paper he let us know how he was going to proceed to make sure he was on track. Andy loves to speak. His presentation style is one of interaction and involvement. Whether you want him to just speak or you want him to involve your group in a hands on activity or group building exercise, he can do both very effectively. He has many different techniques he uses to stimulate thinking and make the presentation interesting for all. In all of the presentations, he was well prepared. You can tell that he has a talent in this area by the way he creatively will introduce a subject. By introducing his subject in a creative way, he is able to immediately captivate his audience and draw them into the presentation.

Each time that Andy Greenberg has spoken to the teachers, we have had very positive responses. Often times the staff will go up to him after a presentation and follow up with additional comments about the presentation or to find out how they can begin to implement the content from the speech. Andy Greenberg's work and the impact it has had on the staff here at the Pennie Z. Davis Child Development Center is outstanding.

I would highly recommend Andy Greenberg to speak at your event. You will find that he is well prepared to speak on any topic and will go the extra mile to make sure your group is motivated and ready to take on any task. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

To Whom It May Concern:

As Regional Sales Manager of Nashua Corporation I've had the privilege of working with Andy Greenberg for the last fourteen years. Andy has been engaged with the efforts of training within our company, helping to establish and develop the professional abilities of our employees. I've personally benefited from Andy's training sessions, motivation, positive attitude and most importantly his professional ability in negotiations and meetings.

Andy is very adept with the turn of a phrase; he is an engaging conversationalist who is very quick on his feet. He is often seen as someone who involves others into the learning process to cover all areas of learning styles.

It is my privilege to recommend him to your organization.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me. My number is listed below.

Sincerely,

Steve Davis

To whom it may concern:

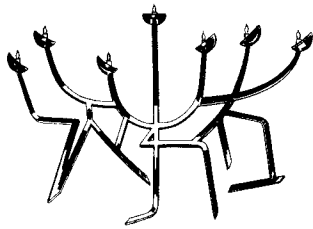

I have had the pleasure of working with Andy Greenberg for over 20 years. In that time, Andy has held various management positions with a wide range of functional responsibilities. In each role he has distinguished himself with proven success as both a manager and leader.

Of particular note, is Andy's outstanding motivational presentation skills. On numerous occasions Andy has been given the responsibility to present to various audiences, such as, Sales, Customer Service, Marketing, and Manufacturing. On each occasion, Andy could be counted upon to deliver a creative, attention holding, entertaining and effective presentation. These skills have also been recognized by outside organizations such as customer trade groups and academic groups, which have requested his services.

If you are considering Andy Greenberg's services for your organization, I recommend him without reservation.

Sincerely,

Michael Jarrett

To Whom It May Concern:

For Andrew Greenberg

I have known Andrew (Andy) Greenberg for more than four years. In that time, he has occupied the pulpit of our synagogue as a guest speaker on several occasions. His talks have been informative, well prepared and presented. He is an excellent speaker, natural, warm and likable, who provides a clear understanding of the topic he is presenting and he is good at getting his message out.

Andy has also chaired several publicity committees for various events held in connection with Beth El Synagogue. His short comments to raise interest in these events and to get participation from members have also been well prepared and presented. He has always shown initiative and creativity in his presentations.

Andy's efforts at Beth El Synagogue have always accomplished the goals he set out for the projects.

If I may be of any further help to you, please call or email me at any time.
